Facility Information

The completely barrier-free guesthouse guarantees every guest – handicapped or not-handicapped, pregnant or not – a safe and comfortable stay.
The exterior is somewhat reminiscent of a British countryside, a homage to the homeland of Peter Rabbit.
The guesthouse sits in the quiet and peaceful surroundings amidst rice fields and woods.

The artificial hot spring bath features granite porphyry. Enjoy a relaxed private time with your family or by yourself uninterrupted by other guests. Booking is not necessary – you can use the bath as many times as possible so long as there are no other users.

Please consult us in advance if you need to request external bathing assistance. Because the slope leads to the middle of the bathtub, wheelchair users can ride into the water with the shower wheelchair available at the guesthouse.

Handrails in and around the bathtub offer a safe access for physically disabled and pregnant users.
